Events & Workshops

Memory Cafe
Tuesday, August 13, 1 pm
2nd Floor Meeting Room
Join us in a social engagement program for people with memory concerns. Marnie Pratt, WCDPL Local History Librarian, will take us on an armchair tour of Bowling Green, Ohio. Registration required. To register, call the Wood County Senior Center at 419-353-5661. A partnership with the Alzheimer Association (Northwest Ohio Chapter) and the Wood County Committee on Aging.

Pen to Palette Book & Art Discussion @ the Toledo Museum of Art
(2445 Monroe St., Toledo, OH)
Thursday, August 15, 10:15 am
Join docents Dianne Klein and Sharon Hanna at the Toledo Museum of Art for a one-hour tour of artwork specially selected to complement Jamie Ford's novel, Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet. Pick up a copy of the book from WCDPL to read beforehand. Registration required, please call 419-352-5050. Meet at the TMA at 10:15 for the tour.

Wolves: Fact vs. Myth
Wednesday, August 28, 7 pm
Atrium
How much of the wolf's "bad guy" reputation is deserved? Ironwood Wolves and their wolf ambassador separate fact from myth by looking not only at the family life, habitat, and diet of wolves, but also their important place in the ecosystem. Ironwood Wolves' appearance is supported by a gift of the Julia Rentz Estate.

An Evening with Nate Blakeslee
A Foundation Series Event
Tuesday, September 10, 7 pm
Atrium
Join us for an Evening with Nate Blakeslee, author of American Wolf. Talk and book signing free. Tickets are available at wcdpl.org/FoundationSeries
Supported by gifts to the WCDPL Foundation.
