

The Twelve Dancing Princesses Retold

The Classic Story

When the dancing slippers of his twelve daughters are mysteriously worn through with holes every morning, the king is determined to uncover why. He holds a contest, giving any young man who wishes to try three nights to learn where his daughters go and how they wear through their shoes. A young soldier, gifted a magical cloak of invisibility, solves the mystery when he follows the girls to an underground fairy world where they dance through the night every night.
